More than Music
presents:
RHETT WALKER BAND
and Stephanie Pauline

- WHAT: Rhett Walker Band presented by, with all proceeds to benefit, More than Music Inc.
- WHO: The night's headliner, the Rhett Walker Band, made an impressive debut two years ago with Come To The River, and their second release, Here's To The Ones, continues their highest, southern rock stampede. The debut effort generated the band's first Top 5 hit, "When Mercy Found Me," and garnered Walker a Grammy® nomination. Since its inception, the band has been invited eight times to perform on the Grand Ole Opry.
- "Providing a winning combination of unique musical style with an impassioned and relatable message . . . the band has an obvious calling to their art." —Jackie Labuguen, Christian Music Review
 - "Walker possesses an impressive set of pipes, and his soulful bellow fills up a rock song like few other voices in Christian Music. . . . Here's To The Ones is a rare treat in that both the music and the message sound equally authentic." —Alex Caldwell, Jesus Freak Hideout
 - Concert opener, Stephanie Pauline is a multi-talented singer, songwriter and recording artist. With poignant lyrics, engaging storytelling and a sweet, but powerful voice, Stephanie's music has been played in 30 countries and on nearly 1,000 radio stations to date.
 - "Stephanie Pauline exists in that twilight zone between Nashville accessibility and indie credibility. Based in Colorado, far from the bubblegum machinery of Nashville country music, she has taken the best elements of Americana's commercial black sheep and given it heart and soul." —No Depression
 - "Stephanie Pauline's wonderful voice; tuneful, emotional and passionate: fantastic." —Radio Cherwell
 - Emcee is TBA.
- WHEN: Friday, Sept 25th, 2015; showtime 7 PM. General admission doors open 6 PM.
